OPTIONAL REQUEST FOR REPORTING EXEMPTION Pursuant to KRS 121.180(1) - This section of the form contains options for requesting reporting exemptions based on the amount of money the candidate plans to raise or spend in each election. This section of the instructions contains important information regarding deadlines for filing reporting exemptions and possible penalties for exceeding the threshold for the exemption chosen.

Deadlines

For candidates with a January filing deadline - The request for exemption for the primary nomination must be filed with the filing officer who receives the candidate's filing papers no later than the filing deadline for the primary. To revoke or change the request for exemption for the primary, the candidate must file an amended Form KREF 001 no later than 15 days after the filing deadline for the primary.

For candidates winning the primary nomination - If the candidate has not already filed a request for exemption for the general election, it must be filed with the officer who receives the candidate's filing papers no later than 25 days after the date of the primary. To revoke the request for exemption, the candidate must file an amended Form KREF 001 no later than 25 days after the date of the primary.

For candidates with an August filing deadline - The request for exemption must be filed with the officer who receives the candidate's filing papers no later than the filing deadline for the general election. To revoke or change the request for reporting exemption, the candidate must complete Form KREF 001 no later than 15 days after the filing deadline for the general election.

Exceeding the Threshold for Exemption

Candidates for county offices, city offices, or school board races - May exceed the threshold chosen without filing an amended Form KREF 001. However, the candidate must begin filing all applicable financial reports due, or be subject to civil penalties for late reporting.

For all other candidates - A candidate who fails to revoke or change the reporting exemption chosen, and then exceeds the threshold, may be subject to penalties, including civil penalties for late reporting or possible criminal penalties for knowing violations.

NO EXEMPTION OPTION - A candidate may choose to indicate that he or she is not requesting a reporting exemption, and is therefore required to file all reports for the primary election only, for the general election only, or for both elections, as indicated by checking the appropriate box. If a candidate chooses this option, all reports are required, even if no campaign activity has taken place during the reporting period.

Whether a candidate is opposed or unopposed in an election does not affect the reporting requirements.

EXEMPTION OPTION A - A candidate who intends to raise or spend $3,000 or less (including the candidate's own money) during each election may request an exemption from all pre-election reporting. To choose this exemption option, check one box to indicate whether the exemption is being requested for the primary election only, the general election only, or both the primary and general elections.

EXEMPTION OPTION B - A candidate who intends to raise or spend $1,000 or less (including the candidate's own money) during each election may request an exemption from all pre- and post-election reporting. To choose this exemption option, check one box to indicate whether the exemption is being requested for the primary election only, the general election only, or both the primary and general elections.

SECTION 5. AMENDED INFORMATION, REVOCATION OR CHANGE IN REPORTING EXEMPTION - This section of the form is used to indicate that information as previously filed on a Form KREF-001 has changed.

IF USING THIS FORM TO AMEND - If using this form to amend candidate, election, treasurer, or depository information, complete a new Form KREF-001 in its entirety. In Section 5, check the appropriate box to indicate that the form contains information which is different from that which was originally filed. Briefly describe the reason for the amendment. (Note: For this type of change the amended Form KREF-001 may be filed directly with the Registry.)

For example, to name a new campaign treasurer in the event of the resignation of the former treasurer, complete the entire form, include the new treasurer's name, address, and telephone numbers in the appropriate fields. Check the box in Section 5 to indicate that the form contains amended information, and in the space provided for a description of the amendment, indicate "due to resignation of treasurer, new treasurer appointed."

IF USING THIS FORM TO REVOKE - Prior to the deadline, this form may be used to revoke a prior exemption option and/or to exercise a different option by completing a new KREF Form 001 in its entirety. In Section 4, check the new exemption option chosen. In Section 5, check the appropriate box to indicate that the form contains a new exemption option selection, and briefly describe the reason for the revocation and/or new selection.

For example, if the candidate did not exercise an exemption option, and planned to file all campaign finance reports, but prior to the deadline to revoke determined that he or she would not raise or spend in excess of $1,000, the candidate could file a revocation of his or her original option and then exercise a new option. To exercise the new option, the candidate would complete the form in its entirety, select Option 2 in Section 4, and check the appropriate box in Section 5 to indicate that a change has occurred. In the space provided for a description, the candidate would indicate "due to no opposition in this race, planned spending will not exceed $1,000."

CANDIDATE'S SIGNATURE - After reading the verification statement, the candidate should sign and date the form. By signing the form the candidate acknowledges that he or she has read and understands the verification statement.
